

CROSSWORD – SIKHISM

CLUES

ACROSS

4. the word is derived from the Sanskrit word for 'disciple'
or 'learner'

---

5. the language of the Guru Granth Sahib

---

6. the compilation of Sikh scriptures

---

7. he was the tenth guru

---

13. a complete and continuous reading of the Sikh scripture
that 48 hours

---

14. they are considered the mediators of divine grace

---

17. a mela celebrated in Anandpur at the time of Holi

---

18. these are songs composed by the first five gurus

---

DOWN

1. marks the founding of the Khalsa Brotherhood

---

2. the birth month of Guru Nanak

---

3. the first of Sikhism's ten gurus

---

5. another name for the Adi Granth or sacred scripture

---

7. these are festivals marking the birth or martyrdom of a guru

---

8. this is the main center of the Sikh religion

---

9. the brotherhood that requires its members to wear five symbols

---

10. this is the name for the ultimate deity and it means 'truth'

---

11. the name taken by all female Sikhs and it means 'princess'

---

12. the name for Sikh temples

---

15. the name taken by all male Sikhs and it means 'lion'

---

16. means praise to the Guru

---

