AROUND FEZANA...

FEZANA at the United Nations

FEZANA UN-NGO COMMITTEE REPORT

Background:

FEZANA was placed on the Roster of non-governmental organizations (NGO's) in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations (UN) in 1997. We are now also registered with the Department of Public Information (DPI) and maintain this standing by submitting quadrennial reports.

The FEZANA UN-NGO Committee was appointed in 2003; current Co-Chairs are Afreed Mistry, Homi D. Gandhi and Behram Pastakia.

For the first time, the FEZANA Team participated at the 55th Annual DPI/NGO Conference entitled "Rebuilding Societies Emerging from Conflict: A Shared Responsibility," held at the UN in New York City, on September 9-11, 2002. Since then, we have participated and presented workshops at numerous Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) meetings held at the UN headquarters, and at annual UN-DPI NGO conferences all over the globe. The funding for travel, visas and housing remain the responsibility of the participants themselves.

Committee Activities:

The year 2012 started with a huge success as our team (Tanya Bharda, Homi Gandhi, Afreed Mistry, Freyaz Shroff and Behram Pastakia) presented a panel discussion titled, "NGO Learnings: Empowering Rural Women to Overcome Poverty & Hunger" at the 56th CSW conference. We showcased specific case studies from the Gram Seva Foundation in addressing infant malnutrition and the holistic approach of the World Zoroastrian Organization to promote prosperity in South Gujarat. The international dialogue at the workshop provided team members opportunities in sharing best practices and to network with like minded individuals.

Participants, on return to their home cities, have the option to follow-up with action programs. For example, Roshni Kasad who has worked with an NGO called Manav Sadhna in Gujarat, is involved in organizing a tour by children from the slums of Ahmedabad presenting a dance performance at American University in Washington D.C. on 17 May 2012. The children shall visit the Gandhi Memorial Center in the nation's capital before leaving for the second leg of their fund-raising tour in California this summer. Roshni continues to advocate for Indicorps – Service for the Soul.

The declaration by the UN General Assembly to celebrate NowRuz as an intangible heritage of humanity, successful after a long and arduous international campaign, was an important landmark. The committee urges member associations of FEZANA to meet with their local elected officials in celebrating this day, the spring equinox, as our New Year, as we establish our own unique identity on this continent.

Focus and Policy:

Over the last ten years, the UN-NGO committee has chosen to encourage participation by Zarathushti youth and in keeping with our faith tradition, lifted up the message of caring for the environment. From the outset, we determined as a policy that there shall be no place for proselytization in our activities.

Future Plans:

We are keen to advocate for human rights and religious freedom, celebrating our ancient heritage and culture, echoed in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. A replica of the Cylinder of Cyrus the Great is housed at the UN as evidence from the Achaemenian dynasty of a people who were respectful of the rights of the other, even those vanquished in battle, to practise their own religion without hindrance. We look forward to seeing members of FEZANA install replicas of this symbol from antiquity in their association halls, homes, and public gardens in their cities, to share the story of who we are and what we stand for. As the demographic profile of the Zarathushti population morphs, we anticipate greater involvement from the Iranian Zarathushti diaspora in developing these plans.

To Connect:

Zarathushtis from anywhere in the world interested in joining the FEZANA UN-NGO team should contact Afreed B. Mistry afreed.mistry@gmail.com, Behram Pastakia bpastakia@aol.com, and Homi D. Gandhi homidgandhi@gmail.com, with a copy of their curriculum vitae and a letter of intent stating how they would further the vision and mission of the UN. We seek individuals with leadership potential who can speak and write well. Fluency in multiple languages is an added asset. ## Education, Conference and Scholarship Committee, 2011-12

The Education Conference and Scholarship Committee was formed, to support and enhance the efforts of the Member Associations to provide religious education and education material to their individual members and to enhance the knowledge of Zoroastrianism through supporting lectures and scholarships for the study of Zoroastrianism and encouraging Zoroastrian Studies at Institutions of Higher Learning. To empower our children and our youth with the knowledge and information necessary to function in a pluralistic society and in the interaction bring informed judgment, conviction and wisdom based on a comprehensive education of the tenets and philosophy of the Zoroastrian religion and to empower our parents, educators and members of the community with informed vision, knowledge and guidance necessary in the imparting of such education.

Towards these goals the ESC Committee carries out the following activities:

Religion Education Teachers Workshops

Five Religious Education Workshops have been held over the years in different regions of the US and Canada such as the East Coast, West Coast, Southern Midwest, Toronto, bringing together teachers from different associations to discuss teaching curriculum, teaching methods, and general discussions of the problems which teachers face and the solutions.

A workshop for teachers concentrating on teaching methods for teaching religious education is planned at the 16th NAZC in New York as well as a course in Fundamentals of Zoroastrianism, religion and history for youth at the college level and young adults.

Website for Religion Class Material

The website www.Zoreled.org was created 4 years ago, where teachers can share their teaching material with other teachers. At the present it has age appropriate materials contributed by ZAGNY, ZSO, the KZBM Sunday School for Little Zarathushtis, Karachi, Pakistan and ZANT teacher Annahita Jasavala. A list of books that can be used by teachers for their classes and the places from which the books can be obtained is also available on this website.

Google Group for Religion Class Teachers

A Google group Zoroastrian-Teachers@Googlegroups.com has been established to facilitate communication between teachers and the ESC Committee. At the present it has 51 members.

Education Materials

The ESC supports the development of Religious Education material for example the Kushti Weaving Video

FEZANA's Jungalwala Lectures

The Jungalwala Lecture Series was set up By FEZANA to honor Khorshed Jungalwala for her work with and for FEZANA. The lecture series invites scholars of Zoroastrianism generally once a year to give a lecture at a gathering of Zoroastrians such as the North American Zoroastrian Congress, the North American Zoroastrian Youth Congress, the World Zoroastrian Congress and the World Zoroastrian Youth Congress or other venues where a large number of Zoroastrians might be expected to attend. Since its inception in 2007, the lecture series has had Prof Kaikhosrov Irani, Prof Almut Hintze, Prof Oktor Skjaervo, Prof Jenny Rose and Prof Jamsheed Choksy among others as the invited speakers. Prof Yuhan Vevaina from Stanford University will be the Jungalwala Lecturer at the 16th NAZC .

Moobed Faridoon Zardoshty Religion Education Scholarship

This scholarship set up by the Zardoshty family in honor of Moobed Faridoon Zardoshty supports Zarthushti students of Zoroastrianism who are working at the graduate level at recognized Universities. A number of students have availed of this scholarship to help them obtain graduate degrees in fields related to Zoroastrianism. Rastin Mehri has been the latest recipient. □
